

I

Nijmegen 2017

IV

SOCIAL AND INTELLECTUAL NETWORKING IN THE EARLY MIDDLE AGES

31 August – 2 September 2017
@ Radboud University, Nijmegen, Netherlands

Co-Organized by Networks of Knowledge and Networks and Neighbours

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Prof. Eileen Joy (Punctum Books, BABEL Working Group, and Postmedieval)
Prof. Yitzhak Hen (Ben-Gurion University of the Negev)

Organizers

Dr. Michael J. Kelly (State University of New York at Binghamton, and N&N)
Dr. Sven Meeder (Radboud University, and NoK)
Mr. Lennart Jetten (Radboud University)

Optional Pre-Registration

NoK/N&N is entirely free and open to all, and pre-registration is not required for attendance of the conference. However, pre-registration is encouraged, as it allows us to better accommodate persons in terms of space, introduction packets, technological planning, dietary requests, etc. Pre-registration also permits registrants access to the conference papers, available for reading and downloading on the Networks and Neighbours website.

If you would like to pre-register, please provide the following information to us at conference@networksofknowledge.org:

- Name, Email and Affiliation
- Dietary Requirements
- Accessibility Requirements

Networks of Knowledge is a project funded by the Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research.
This conference is supported by Radboud University.